

Report of the Tacoma Links Art Facet – April 2017.

The Arts Facet met on April 12th via conference call; we agreed to commence our second year of the Links Signature Program; Classics Through the Ages (CTA). We have selected Phyllicia Matthews , she is an African American junior at the Tacoma School of the Arts (SOTA). Phyllicia is a visual artist. She is the daughter of Keasha Woodruff. Phyllicia will meet with the current student artist; LaChelle McKinney, and the master artist Robert McLendon in May to transition the program.

We are excited to see our 2016-2017 student artist LaChelle off to college! We welcome our 2017-2018 student artist Phyllicia ; as she embarks upon an exciting year with the Arts Facet.

Frances Davis

Chair of the Arts