The meeting was held at the home of Anne Wade.

Members present: Frances Davis, Anne Wade, Ella Williams, Mary Wilson.

Members requesting to be excused: Kirsten Watts.

Called to order: 2:15PM

Reviewed the Classics Through the Ages (CTA) Program and the tie in to the chapter's mental health umbrella program.

March 2016 through April 2017. Student LaChelle McKinney has met with the master artist Robert McLendon most Wednesday's at the Tacoma Art Museum (TAM). Instruction in theory, history, design and execution has been completed.

Final stages of the program are:

A. Art exhibit

1. Private exhibit, October 23, 2016, Chapter 50th anniversary luncheon.
2. Public exhibit , April 29, 2017, Spring Fling scholarship fundraiser/50th Anniversary Gala.

B. Peer Instruction.

CTA student to teach art lessons to Tacoma School Students. Fall, Winter 2016. Arlington Elementary School Tacoma, WA.

The instruction will be provided to a blended classroom, students will be mainstream and special education. The curriculum will address the mental health disorder(s) of the CTA student and special education students. Art will be used as a vessel of self-expression, environmental interruption and broad communication.

If the Portland chapter identifies a student population for instruction, our CTA student will replicate her curriculum.

The Facet Chair and Ms. McKinney completed their 6 month assignment on the TAM 30 Americans Ad Hoc committee in September. They along with Mr. McClendon attended the Red Carpet debut of the exhibition and the dinner in honor of the owners of 30 Americans, Don and Mera Rubell.

Facet member Kirsten Watts (a member of TAM) was a special guest at the Red Carpet debut of 30 Americans.

Per CTA program directives:

As a graduating senior, the CTA student will receive a collegiate scholarship form the chapter.

The chapter will continue to “follow and mentor” her through her undergraduate collegiate career.
