

Tacoma Chapter of Links, Arts Committee Meeting for November 14th, 2018

Date: November 13th, 2018

Time: 7:06 pm

Location Committee member call in

Members Present Jay Riley (Committee Chair), Latonja Hunter, Mary Wilson, Anne Wade, Kay Wilson-Kirby.

Topics:

1. A number of Links members will be attending the November 16th, Friday symphony Gala at the Tacoma Museum of Glass. Link members who will be attending are Jay Riley, Latonja Hunter, Anne Wade, Mary Wilson, Michele Olsen, Mary Green and Gena Hatcher.

The event will begin at 6:00 pm. All attending Links will wear their Link pins and enjoy dinner and live auction bidding at the event.

2. The Art's Committee will also present a December 8th Mental Health conference. The conference will take place at 11:30 am at Bethlehem Church in Tacoma. Our speaker will be Dr. Eric Clausell, who will be addressing the issue of "mental health issues for students of color in the arts. "He is a Clinical Psychologist with the VA Puget Sound Health Care System and also works with the Tacoma Urban Performing Arts Center.

Also present at the conference, Renee from the TUPAC dance company will dance a piece entitled "Reflections" during the conference's breakout sessions.

The committee is looking for pamphlets to have available at the conference, on reflection, contemplation and other mental wellness subjects, for use during breakout sessions.

Other reminders:

3. The Urban Nut Cracker will be performed at Stadium High School on November 30th. Tickets are available for $20.00.
4. The committee is also investigating the possibility of a partnership with 'Tacoma Creates, which may also give us the opportunity for Grant writing as a facet, for further opportunity to support our children."

5. Finally, the committee is planning a holiday celebration for Arts Committee members on January 5th, .

Our meeting adjourned at 8:00 pm? Kay Wilson-Kirby (Arts Committee member)