

Tacoma Links Program Report March 20, 2019

Program Call Attendees: Links Kim Green, Alyce McNeil. Jay Riley, Gina Hatcher, LaTonya Hunter: Excused Links Stephanie Jordan, Alicia Stephens, Dorothy Williams

On Agenda for March business Meeting- STY, The ARTS, NTS

Facets are having discussions on how to facilitate collaborative programming impact. Sharing activities and combining resources to optimize Links' community impact was major part of meeting conversation.

STY

Ride Like a Girl Event May 11 at Tacoma Urban League; STY arranging green T-Shirts with Links' Logo for riders

Investigating other transportation options for event attendees

Restocking of Foss's clothes/food closet; Closet to remain project next program year

NTS

Developing brochures for churches, schools, libraries etc. focus See Something; Say Something To be ready in May

April 23 Human Trafficking Training 6-7:30 pm at Puyallup Library presented by Pierce County Coalition Against Trafficking

Curriculum and video still being reviewed with school district for use with students

National Sex Trafficking Conference to be held in August in Tacoma. More information to follow.

ARTS

Mini Maestro Program at UPS 2:30 on May 5-Peter and the Wolf featuring the full orchestra. Tickets $7.00 for children; $10.00 for adults. Links shown on Symphony Tacoma website as one of sponsors.

Arts will sponsor event next year

James Carter, saxophonist, at Pantages Theater Sat, April 20 at 7:30 bringing diverse cultures and influences on performance. Encourage attendance

Fall start-up Symphony for Youth-5th graders Concert taught to youth and teachers are provided curriculum

HHS

Stress Reduction/Wellness session April 27 following business meeting

Health moments at business meetings Oral Health-March; Diabetes April; Mental Health-May

ITS

Sisterhood in City planned for 2020.

Respectfully Submitted.

Carolyn Lee, Program Chair

