The Human Trafficking 101 Workshop for Community Leaders is set for Saturday 18 April at Tacoma Community College, Information Technology Building 16, Room 106 from 11am to 2pm.

The trainers for the event will be from the organization Rebuilding Hope, Sexual Assault Center (SAC) of Tacoma. A 1 to 1 ½ hr presentation, followed by a 30 minute presentation from a Survivor of Trafficking and 30 minutes of Q&A from attendees. Snacks and refreshments will be served.

There will be handouts, the Tacoma Links Trafficking brochure and a bookmark created by the National Trends and Services committee as a give-way items for attendees.

The event is open to the public but will be focused on inviting community organizations for people of color. Invites will be sent to:

- ☛ The Black Collective
- ☛ The Black Nurses Association
- ☛ Black Student Unions of Tacoma Community College, University of Washington Tacoma & Pierce College
- ☛ Jack & Jill
- ☛ Divine Nine Panhellenic Representatives
- ☛ Associated Ministries and Tacoma Ministerial Alliance
- ☛ Boys and Girls Clubs
